

Sinclar Broadcasting is attempting to circumvent our election laws and air what is nothing more than a campaign commercial for George W. Bush. I don't believe this is an appropriate use of our citizen-owned airwaves. Sinclair is the same entity that prohibited its stations from airing the Tom Brokaw special listing the names of our soldiers who have died in Iraq because it was allegedly too political. Please do not let Sinclair get away with their egregious behavior.